TRENTINO ALTO-ADIGE

We want to introduce a new Italian golf destinations, specially recommended for those who love mountains, hiking and climbing: Trentino Alto-Adige (Trentino-South Tyrol).

This region is located in the northern east of Italy and is divided in two self-governing provinces: Trentino and Alto-Adige; since the 1970s, most legislative and administrative powers have been transferred to the two self-governing provinces.

From the 8th century until its annexation by Italy in 1919, the region was part of Austria-Hungary empire. Together with the Austrian state of Tyrol, it is represented by the Euroregion Tyrol-South Tyrol-Trentino. For this reason, in the province of Bolzano, the chief town of Alto Adige, German is the official language in the same way as Italian is.

The region is today among the wealthiest and most developed in both Italy and the whole European Union.

We have prepared our 5-night proposal using Trento and Bolzano, the two chief towns of the region, as our bases to then reach daily the nearest courses:

From Trento

- Folgaria at 40 minutes (33 km – 20 miles)
- Dolomiti at 50 minutes (50 km – 31 miles)
- Petersberg at 50 minutes (57 km – 35 miles)

From Bolzano

- Passiria at 50 minutes (50 km – 31 miles)
- San Vigilio at 30 minutes (22 km – 14 miles)
- Petersberg at 40 minutes (32 km – 20 miles)

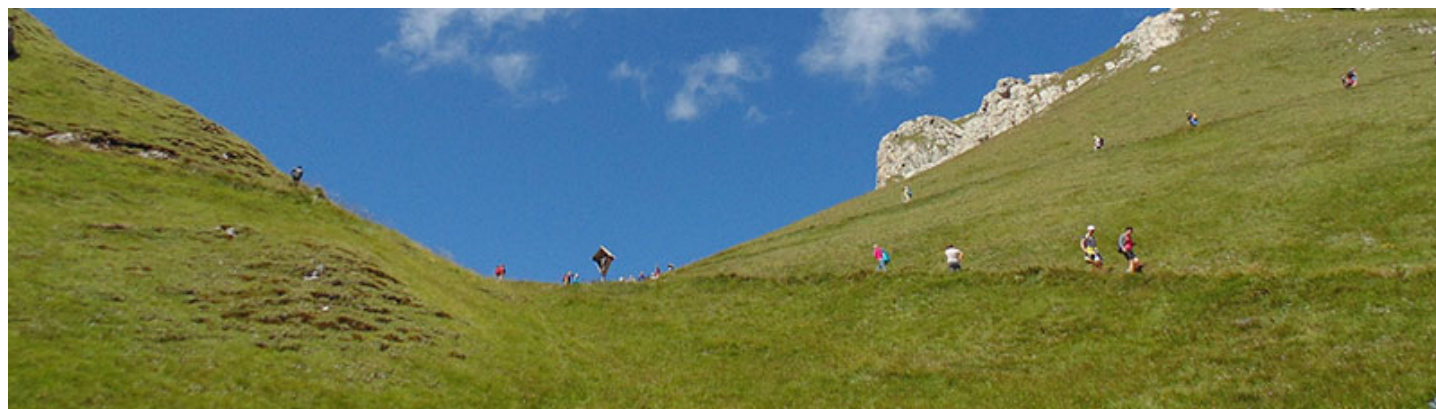

The driving will be also an opportunity to enjoy the wonderful landscape this region is famous for.

We suggest to use the only non-golfing day to take a cableway and reach the summit of any mountain and from there enjoy a wonderful hiking: trust us, it is a really unforgettable experience!
