VENETO

Veneto is a region located in the north-eastern part of Italy whose regional chief town is Venice.

It was part of the Roman Empire until the 5th century AD. Later, after a feudal period, it became part of the Republic of Venice until 1797. Venice ruled for centuries over one of the largest and richest maritime republics and trade empires in the world. After the Napoleonic Wars and the Congress of Vienna, the Republic was annexed by the Austrian Empire, until it was ceded to the Kingdom of Italy in 1866.

The region is served by three major airports (Verona VRN, Venice VCE and Treviso TSF) and is crossed by the railway system serving the region from west to east, from north to south.

From the golfing point of view, we have divided the region in 6 areas:
